TASMANIAN TRAINING AWARDS VOCATIONAL STUDENT OF THE YEAR

Last Friday, President Andrew together with Rotarians Annette, Liz Peter and Anthea travelled to Hobart to attend the Tasmanian Training Awards.

This category had 6 finalists and the overall winner was Naomi Cox.

Naomi was sharing the Roseberry Neighbourhood House co-ordinator's role when she took the initiative to study Leadership and management. Overcoming some challenges to access training, the course has opened opportunities, providing her with the skills to manage complex situations and positively influence others. She has recently canvassed her council to improve recreation facilities for young people in her region. Naomi has built on her initial course and in May this year commenced a career in the health industry.

Naomi will go on to represent Tasmania in this category at the National Awards, which will be held in Hobart , Friday 17th November.
