ROTARY HISTORY

A CRAFT FAIR IS BORN:

John Sullivan's idea was taken up by the Rotary Club of Deloraine which commenced development of the inaugural event in 1981.

This was called the Tasmanian Cottage Industry Exhibition and Craft Fair.

The fair boasted 34 exhibitors and over the two days attracted around 3,000 people to the local Community Centre.

It was a huge success as it provided a window of opportunity for our Craft Folk to display and sell their products to the community.

This started the process of bringing different groups of the community together. An appreciation of others' points of view and desires for life was evident as bridges between factions began to be built.

THE ESSENTIAL ELEMENTS FOR OUR CRAFT FAIR:

1. it was a "working event" where the maker could be seen by the consumer.
2. It was an "educational event" where the public could talk with and learn from the maker.
3. We did not allow imported products or designs or packages.
4. All the products needed to be truly Australian made.
