The lighter side...

While sitting at a counter having doughnuts and coffee at a 'quick stop' service station, two brothers were startled to see a man step up to the cashier, holding a gun and demanding all his money. Not being satisfied with that, he made all the customers line up and proceeded to take all their valuables: watches, billfolds, etc.

As he made his way from person to person in the line, the two brothers stood waiting at the end of the line. One brother carefully reached into his pocket, pulling out some cash and slipping it into his brother's hand.

"What's that?" his brother whispered.

"That's the $20 I owe you." he replied.
